More about the Curiosity Coaching™ telephone-programs

Your telephone-coaching program will unfold over a 12-week or 1-year time-frame. It begins when I send you a questionnaire to fill out and return to me before our first session. This will help us to strategically design the program you choose around your needs and desires.

1. In our initial Curiosity Coaching™ call, we will determine your goals, and identify roadblocks or things that may be getting in your way. Using the skills of observation, curiosity and feedback I will work with you to discover what lights you up and what results you want to achieve.
2. Our coaching will continue with weekly 45 minute phone-sessions in which we discuss your progress, what's next, and I continue to provide guidance and encouragement.
3. While working with me you will learn the skill of bringing out the best in people. These coaching skills can be applied not only to yourself, but in your business, family, and all of your relationships.

Additional Benefits:

Obstacles or achievements keeping you up at night? If you just can't wait until our next session to talk to your coach, there is hope! During the course of your coaching program, you will have unlimited email access to me, and can feel free to call me for quick questions or coaching anytime!

If you have any questions please call 1-888-820-1958 or email gigi@thefabulousfactor.com
